Maloney, Milstead Compile Best Runs; Shea Beats Dalton

Cross' Plurality of 903, Better Than 1932 Majority; Socialist Vote Lower—Goss Ousted By 898 Votes; Third Ward, Normally G. O. P. Turns Democratic

NAUGATUCK

Wm. J. Baxter, Correspondent—Phone Naugatuck 672-2

Naugatuck, Nov. 7.—Naugatuck democrats were still glowing with pride today over their surprising achievement in the election yesterday when they gave Governor Wilbur L. Cross a plurality of 903 votes. All the democrats won here. Joseph L. Jackson and William McDermott were elected representatives although their margin was about 800.

Judge of Probate, D. Emmett Shea, democratic candidate for reelection was successful. He secured 2848 votes here to 1950 for his republican opponent James L. Dalton, a margin of 898 votes. In Easton Falls he had 292 votes to 338 for Dalton. His total plurality was 552.

Leading democrats here including Town Committee Chairman Frank T. Green and Warden Sheridan had predicted close to a 900 plurality. Governor Cross had requested democrats to boost his plurality here from 707 in 1932 to 1,000 in 1934 and they almost achieved this seemingly impossible stunt. Pre-election predictions of victory had ranged from 700 to 1,000 with the latter mark more as a goal to aim at than anything really expected.

A survey of comparative figures shows however that not many more persons voted for Cross but a good many less voted against him. In 1932 he polled 2840 votes in town to 2848 yesterday. However in that year his republican opponent, ex-governor Trumbull, polled 2138 whereas Alcorn only polled 1940 votes here yesterday.

Either the republicans did not turn out a considerable portion of their vote or a good many persons who had voted republican before voted democratic yesterday. The Independent Citizens party, which had the support of the progressives, polled only 54 votes in the race for governor. Joseph McGovern, local candidate for congress from the fifth district on this ticket ran ahead of his ticket by 17 votes, polling 71 votes. In 1932 the independent republican ticket secured 52 votes.

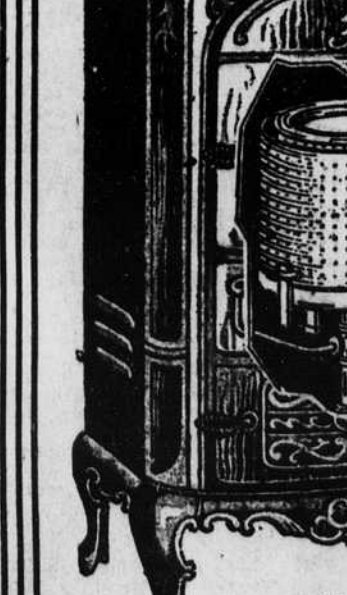

The socialist vote dropped here from that of two years ago. Jasper McLevy, candidate for governor, secured 85 votes here where in 1932 he got 143. The socialist labor candidate for governor, Alvin M. Gully, polled 11 votes to 19 for the gubernatorial candidate on this ticket in 1932, and Isidor Wolf, communist candidate for governor, got 14 votes compared to 13 for his party two years ago.

One of the features of the election was the striking repudiation by first ward democrats of a report in Monday's early paper which said first ward democrats were going to cut J. Joseph Smith because of alleged similar treatment for Judge Martin F. Gormley local candidate two years ago.

Smith had a majority of 898 over Goss in the whole borough, only five votes less than that of Gov. Cross' plurality and in the first ward he got a 509 margin to 522 for Cross. He secured a higher plurality in this ward than that of Mr. Jackson and just as large as that of Rep. McDermott.

Naugatuck democrats felt they certainly did their best for Atty. Smith.
